

The power of Vote EU

Recognize that social inclusion of asylum seekers starts with dignified reception

Promote small-scale reception facilities for asylum seekers

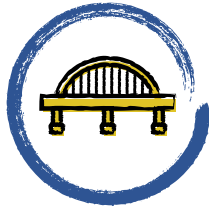

Establish a reception system that ensures dignity

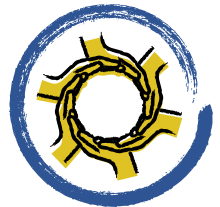

Prevent asylum seekers from becoming homeless and destitute

Build bridges with local communities

Invest in cooperation between governments and civil society organisations

The European Parliament can play a crucial role in shaping an EU that is true to its values and provides protection. JRS Europe supports all political forces that commit to guarantee humane reception conditions for all people asking for protection in Europe.
