

Guarantee the right to seek asylum in the European Union

Facilitate family reunification

Encourage Member States of the European Union to increase resettlement

The power of Vote EU

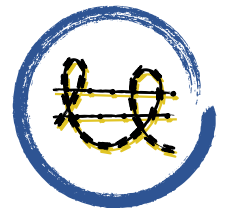

Create additional safe and legal pathways for people in need of protection

Establish clear rules on humanitarian visas in the European Union

End push-backs at the borders of the European Union

The European Parliament can play a crucial role in shaping an EU that is true to its values and provides refuge. JRS Europe supports all political forces that commit to create more safe and legal pathways for people to seek protection in Europe.
